

Funding research involving animals

6 September 2016

Tuesday 6 September
Science Europe, Brussels

09:00	Registration with tea, coffee and pastries
Session 1	Chair: Dr Mark Prescott, NC3Rs
09:30	Welcome Dr Bonnie Wolff-Boenisch, Science Europe
09:35	Aims and objectives of the workshop Mr Stuart Pritchard / Dr Beth Thompson, Wellcome
09:45	Interactive voting session: Exploring funders current policies and processes Dr Katie Lister, NC3Rs
Session 2	Chair: Dr Jacqueline Whyte, Science Europe
10:15	EU processes around funding decisions and ethical review Yves Dumont, DG Research and Innovation, European Commission
10:40	Integrating the 3Rs into publicly funded research using animals: the NC3Rs peer review service Dr Mark Prescott, NC3Rs
11:05	Q&A
11:20	Break
11:35	Break-out activity 1 Evaluating grant applications involving animal use

12:25

Lunch

Session 3

Chair: Mr Stuart Pritchard / Dr Beth Thompson, Wellcome

13:35

Assurances from an Industry Perspective

Magda Chlebus, European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations

13:55

Strengthening the peer review of in vivo research proposals:
supporting the 3Rs and better reproducibility

Dr Sherie Wright, Medical Research Council

14:20

Improving the design and reporting of animal studies: the ARRIVE
Guidelines and the Experimental Design Assistant

Dr Katie Lidster, NC3Rs

14:45

Q&A

15:00

Break

15:20

Break-out activity 2

What does the 'model' peer review and grant giving processes look like?

16:10

Close

Dr Mark Prescott, NC3Rs and Dr Jacqueline Whyte, Science Europe